DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-17, drawn to a live replicating human spumavirus vector comprising an immunizing construct wherein the construct partially replaces the bet gene.

Group II, claim(s) 18-20, drawn to a method of detecting the vector of Group I.

Group III, claim(s) 21-29 and 35-38, drawn to a method of treating and preventing a condition in a subject.

Group IV, claim(s) 30-35, drawn to a method of making a model for use in screening for substances effective in treating or preventing a condition, the model, and a method of screening for a substance effective in treating a disease using the model.

2. The inventions listed as Groups I-IV do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: In the instant case, the technical feature shared among the listed groups is the live replicating human spumavirus vector comprising an immunizing construct wherein the construct partially replaces the bet gene. However, it is noted that this shared technical feature is not a special technical feature for it does not provide a contribution over the prior art, as evidenced by ter Meulen et al., U.S. Patent No. 5646032. ter Meulen et al. teaches a live replicating human spumavirus, foamy virus, vector comprising an immunizing construct wherein the construct partially replaces the bet gene. Thus, in the absence of a contribution over the prior art, the shared technical feature is not a shared special technical feature. Without a shared special technical feature, the inventions lack unity with one another.

3. In addition to above, the following restriction/lack of unity requirement is also required should Applicant elect the invention of Group I or Group III. For Group I, Applicant must further elect an antigen encoded by the vector. The antigen is specified in claims 7-15. For Group III, Applicant must elect a condition that is being treated or prevented by the vector. The condition is specified in claims 22-25 and 27-29. These antigens and conditions lack unity with one another because they do not have a shared special technical feature. Each of the listed antigen or condition has its own special technical feature, such as its particular genotype, phenotype and pathogenicity. In the absence of a special technical feature shared among the antigens and the conditions, the antigens and conditions lack unity with one another.

4. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Emily Le whose telephone number is (571) 272 0903. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday - Friday, 8 am - 5:30 pm.
